MH17 Crash: Immediate investigation will be launch, says Najib

MH17 Crash

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 17.07.2014, 18:35 Time

USPA NEWS - PETALING JAYA, July 18 - Investigation will be immediate launchon the Malaysian Airlines aircraft, which was shot down in Russia, tweeted Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak on Friday. "I am shocked by reports that an MH plane crashed. "We are launching an immediate investigation," he tweeted minutes after the news was confirmed. The KL bound Boeing 777 which was from Amsterdam, was reported to have crashed in Ukraine near the Russian border. There were a total 280 passengers and 15 crewmembers on board and the Ukranian Interior Minister earlier announced that 295 people were believed to be dead. Reports said that it crashed in a conflicted area near Donetsk and it would be complicated to get to the crash. MAS sources said the plane did not enter the Russian airspace. Sources said the plane was "shot down" while it was cruising at an altitude of 30,000ft. Mas had announced that they lost contact with MH17 and was last known to have been in Ukranian airspace. Emergency Ministry official on site says body parts scatter

Malaysian Prime Minister Najib Razak says he is launching an "immediate investigation" into reports of a Malaysian jetliner crash. Malaysia Airlines said it lost contact with Flight 17 over Ukrainian airspace Thursday. It was flying from Amsterdam to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Defense Minister Hishamuddin Hussein tweeted that there is no confirmation that the plane was shot down. He said he has instructed the country's military to check and get confirmation.
